

Senior Class Meeting

Wednesday September 19, 2007

Class Business

Mr. Calore, class advisor, reminded seniors of the dues structure: $135 before October 26th, $145 before January 1st, and $150 after January 1st. A list of reductions for people who sold magazines in the junior magazine drive will be posted on bulletin boards and on Mr. Calore's door. It will also be on his website. Make checks out to "ABRHS Class of 2008" and hand checks in to Mr. Calore or Lani DeRome in room 114N.

The photographer will return for the remaining Senior Portraits from October 14th to October 16th. Mr. Calore urged seniors to get their potratris done this week.

Senior Dress-Up Day is scheduled for November 21st. Students should start thinking about this event early and, if they want musical accompaniment, should turn in a CD to Mr. Drinkwater.

Graduation Items

Stduents at the meeting filled out a form to give their measurements for their graduation cap and gown. Students who did not give their measurements soul contact a class officer/Mr. Calore by sending an email to abclass2008@gmail.com. Jostens also offers clothing and other graduation memorabilia which students or their families may order directly.

DAR Award

Students voted for David Cronin, Jyoti Jasrasaria, or Ben Perlstein as the winner of the DAR Award.

National Merit

Mr. Hitzrot from the Conseling Department announced the names of the semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program. All semifinalists had their photo taken the following day between 2nd and 3rd period.

Yearbook

Jeremy Flagg, the yearbook advisor, distributed important yearbook handouts. Extra copies are located at the counseling center or the school store. He also introduced the two editors, Amy Longwell and Emily Feldmann. There will be many changes in the yearbook this year, including being in ALL COLOR.

The entire packet distributed, including the Senior Directory, Senior Quote, Senior Survey, and Superlatives, is all due Friday September 28th. Parent Recognition Ads are due October 5th. Everything can be turned in to the school store.

Class Officers' Announcements

Ben Perlstein (class president) talked about the four committees for this year. Each committee is headed by one of the officers and all interested students should sign up by sending an email to abclass2008@gmail.com.

Prom Committee (Alexandra Azzolino) will handle everything to do with prom

Senior Activities Committee (Kent McCann) will be working on senior events, including the upcoming Senior Dress-Up Day.

Senior Week Committee (Evan Feng) will be responsible for the class trip, graduation, etc in the final week of school.

 The new committee is the Social Action Committee which focuses on a Senior Year Social Action Initiative, raising money over the entire year for Free the Children. The officers hope that this idea will be the first of an annual social action initiative.

Ben also talked about Sweatshirt designs. The class officers want to have them in the fall so we can wear them for our senior year, not in June. Any students who have ideas for designs should email them to abclass2008@gmail.com.

Class Photo
