The Department's Educational Philosophy

Proficiency in English is an essential component of education in the United States. An ability to understand and communicate in English is fundamental to the preservation of our democratic system and to the well being of its citizens.

Guiding Principles

An essential component of education and the learning process is the development of proficiency in the arts of language. The ability to articulate and respond to complex ideas is a requirement of participatory citizenship and ultimately allows each of us to be more fully human.

- Speak and write clear, idiomatic English.
- Engage in the writing process, from pre-writing to editing and peer feedback to revision.
- Develop voice and depth in both personal and literary papers.
- Develop confidence, independence and critical judgment relative to one's own work.
- Understand as fully as possible what is read.
- Increase understanding of self and others through literature.
- Develop standards of judgment and taste in literature.
- Find enduring pleasure and value in reading good books.

ENGLISH II ACCELERATED/ENRICHED: COURSE #122

Course Frequency: Full-year course, five times per week

Credits Offered: Five

Prerequisites: Successful completion of English I or its equivalent.

Background to the Curriculum

This course was developed by Acton-Boxborough teachers in a summer R & D and continues to undergo review and revision. It was through a major revision in the summer of 1997 that the sophomore curriculum, based on American literature, became more structured to include readings in an American literature anthology, as well as other core readings. Reading and writing exercises were also developed to more-closely parallel the Massachusetts English Language Arts Curriculum Framework expectations for grade ten.

Core Topics/Concepts/Skills

The reading program

- Covers five major movements of American literature.
 - ~ Puritanism
 - ~ Romanticism/Transcendentalism
 - ~ Realism
 - ~ Modernism
 - ~ Contemporary movement
- Explores literature in relation to its time period.
- Traces patterns and connections among American themes: loneliness, rebellion, escape, individualism, cultural diversity, prejudice, and the American Dream.
- Explores the role of regional trends in content and style.
- Explores the historical context and chronological development of the works studied.
- Explores cultural influences.
- Explores writer's style and its effect on a work's message.
- Develops close reading skills, including application, analysis, synthesis, and evaluation.

The writing program

- Offers extensive work on writing as a process, with a focus on writing models.
- Develops objective standards of effective writing.
- Develops skills of self-evaluation and peer evaluation.
- Includes literary analysis, MCAS-style in-class writing, as well as personal/ creative writing.

The language program

- Addresses vocabulary, grammar, usage, and style conventions in the context of the literature and student writing.
- Includes the study and application of literary terms and devices across literary genres.

Additional emphasis is placed on the following skills.

- Critical and creative thinking
- Articulate class discussion
- Collaborative learning
- Effective peer editing

Course-End Learning Objectives

Learning objectives

The Massachusetts Curriculum Framework for English Language Arts is comprised of twenty-seven General Standards organized into four Strands: Language, Literature, Composition and Media. The Learning Objectives for this course are matched to the relevant Framework Strand and Standard.

Reading and critical thinking skills are listed by increasing level of difficulty, moving from the concrete skills of observing and recalling to the more abstract skills of interpreting, synthesizing, analyzing and evaluating. It is the goal of the English Department to move each student toward mastery of advanced skills.

- 1] Understanding of plot, characters, and setting
- 2] Literal interpretations of events
- 3] Understanding of characteristics of different genres
- 4] Understanding of theme
- 5] Understanding of audience
- 6] Understanding of structure
