

*"I need to laugh and when the sun is out
I've got something I can laugh about
I feel good in a special way
I'm in love and it's a sunny day"*

While this is still New England, I suspect the good weather is here to stay! I hope everyone had a chance to enjoy the great weather this weekend. Perhaps the sun and warmth offsets the loss of an hours sleep!

We are more than half way through the school year. The 3rd term ends this Tuesday, April 4th. Parents and guardians should expect to see report cards the week of April 10th. Congratulations to all of our students for working so diligently. All of their hard work and dedication is paying off. This is not, however, the time to kick back and relax. We have a full term ahead of us and a significant portion of important curriculum to cover. If everyone continues to work as hard as they have so far, I am confident that this will prove to be a successful year for all!

Any 7th grade student who missed the English Language Arts Long Composition section of the MCAS last week is scheduled to take the official "Make-up Long Composition" this Wednesday, April 5th. The next wave of MCAS sections are scheduled to begin on May 15th.

Have a great week!
