

“If there is anyone out there who still doubts that America is a place where all things are possible, who still wonders if the dream of our founders is alive in our time, who still questions the power of our democracy, tonight is your answer.”

Election Night Speech in Chicago, 11-04-08

Grey Matters

Volume 6

January 20 – 23, 2009

Number 19

As we are all aware, at noon today, Barak Obama was sworn in as the 44th President. On this historic occasion, we made arrangements so that the inauguration could be viewed by all teams.

Please join me in congratulating The RJ Grey Choruses for a wonderful performance last Tuesday evening! Under the superb direction of Bob Specian, the 7th and 8th Grade choruses sang a range of selections with tremendous energy and skill. With nearly 200 choral members singing and moving together, it was an impressive evening and a joy to watch. A big “Thank You!” goes out to Larry Williams – accompanist, Allen Warner – lights, and Jeanne Goulet – lights and crowd control.

The wonderful entertainment at RJG continues and tonight, January 20, is the Winter Band Concert under the leadership of ABRSD Performing Arts Director Mark Hickey. Set your TiVo to record American Idol, and get yourself to RJG by 7:30PM. You won’t want to miss this show!

Due to our recent snow days, Term Two has been extended to Tuesday, January 27. Parents and guardians, please encourage your children to touch base with their teachers to make sure all assignments have been completed. There is nothing worse than finishing a project and inadvertently not turning it in.

Seventh grade parents and guardians, if you have not already turned in your Project Wellness registration forms, please do so as soon as possible. Should you have any questions, please contact Assistant Principal Andrew Shen, at Extension 3303.

Lastly, the 8th grade dance is scheduled for this Friday, from 6:30 – 8:30PM. Tickets will be on sale all week in homeroom and will not be available at the door. Parents and guardians, please remember that students are to be picked up immediately after the dance. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Have a great week.
