What a wonderful weekend! I hope everyone had an opportunity to get outside and enjoy the great fall weather.

For those of you who have yet to complete our Opening Days Feedback Survey, it is still available at: <http://survey.constantcontact.com/survey/a07e2dbihcjfl154wze/a001fm3gfm9j/greeting>. Another option is to go to the RJG website and click under "Latest News." Thank you in advance for your feedback.

Tonight, Tuesday, October 14, I will be holding my monthly drop-in hour from 6PM-7PM. As always, please feel free to swing if you'd like to say hello or share any thoughts or ideas.

Some families may receive interim reports this week. An interim report does not necessarily mean a failing grade and sometimes, an interim report can be sent home to communicate good news! In general, however, interim reports are typically sent home mid-term when changes in behavior or performance need to be communicated. Should you receive an interim report and have related questions, please contact the classroom teacher directly.

Late last week, any student who ordered school photos should have received their pictures in homeroom. For students who wish to retake their school photos or for students who were absent during the initial photo sessions, Lifetouch will be returning to RJ Grey on Wednesday, November 19. More details about this photo session will be forthcoming. Meanwhile, if you ordered photos and did not receive any, please contact Assistant Principal Andrew Shen at ashen@mail.ab.mec.edu.

The Student Council will be sponsoring a bake sale after school on October 15 and October 16. If you would like to contribute any cupcakes, brownies, cookies, etc., it is easier to sell these items to students when they are individually wrapped. Food items can be sent with your children and dropped them off in Ms. Ahl's room, Room 604, on Tuesday or Wednesday of this week. All proceeds will go to the Acton Food Pantry.

Have a great week.
