

8 Red Citizenship Expectations Contract

Dear 8 Red Students:

The year is off to a great start, and we hope this will be an exciting and fulfilling year for all of us on team. While many of your teachers have already set up individual expectations in their classrooms, we feel it is important to communicate a set of team guidelines for students and teachers that will facilitate a school environment that is scholarly, safe, and enjoyable for everyone. We believe that following these expectations will enable all of us to be good citizens and have a fantastic year together on 8 Red. Please make sure that you understand these citizenship expectations. We expect that they will be followed not only during team classes and activities, but also throughout the school building and community.

Sincerely,

Mr. Balulescu
Sra. Probolus
Mrs. Shoemaker
Mr. Stameris
Ms. Weeks

- 1. Students and teachers will support each other in creating a positive learning environment.
- 2. Students are expected to come to class prepared, on time, and with a willingness to work hard. Class time is valuable, and we must take advantage of the time we have together. Students are expected to be engaged in class activities until they are dismissed by the teacher.
- 3. Students and teachers will respect and maintain the school environment by keeping all areas clean and orderly. Students will behave with maturity and dignity in the R.J. Grey cafeteria.
- 4. Students will be responsible and follow all school rules, especially those concerning cheating, tardiness, gum, hats, inappropriate clothing, mobile phones, and music devices.
- 5. Students and teachers will respect the personal space of others. Inappropriate touching or hitting will not be tolerated and will be reported to the administration.
- 6. As the leadership grade of R.J. Grey, students will set a good example for seventh graders on the buses, in the hallways, and in the school community.

I understand the importance and value of these team citizenship expectations. I also understand that my participation in team activities (including field trips) may be jeopardized by my refusal to follow the expectations outlined above.
