

We, the people of 7 Orange, do ordain and establish this constitution for the purpose of establishing a safe and secure learning environment. We commit to trying to live up to the expectations listed below to create a positive community.

Open to . . .

Meeting new people
Participating in sports and games, especially in gym
Activities in all classes
Reading books in different genres
Learning a new language
New ideas and concepts
Trying a new activity or club
Going to extra help

Responsible for . . .

Your learning
Your behavior
Coming to school/class prepared
Staying organized
Getting to class on time
The quality of your work
School supplies
Bringing school forms back on time
Cleaning up after yourself, your group, at your lunch table
Returning materials/books after you're done
Doing your homework when it's assigned
Maintaining school property
Asking for help, when needed, to reach these goals

Appreciative for . . .

Your opportunity to learn
Others' suggestions, help, attempts to help
Classmates' efforts
Teachers' efforts
A safe and clean school in which to learn
Lunch options
Friendly staff, students, atmosphere

Neighborly towards . . .

Students
All members of your group
Students who are sitting alone, excluded
Adults in the building

Green looks like . . .

Bringing in reusable water bottles
Only taking food that you'll eat
Using all the space on both sides of your paper before getting a new sheet
Walking or biking to school when you can
Riding the bus rather than being driven to school
Carpooling for after school activities
Recycling plastic bottles/aluminum cans and paper

Enduring effort looks like . . .

Participating in ALL classes even if it's not your strength
Coming to extra help when you're having trouble
Revising your writing
Not waiting until the last minute to start your work
Studying a little each night for an upcoming quiz, quest, test
Meeting the IRP reading milestones
Push yourself even when you don't want to Reaching for expectations/goals
Don't stop believing